

COREY BURRELL

Dancer, Instructor and Choreographer

Dance

Corey Burrell Born in Bellflower, CA, got his inspiration to perform from his uncle, Reggie Burrell, who toured with the Young Americans and Gladys Knight. Starting his career at the tender age of 5, Corey appeared on Romper Room for 3 years. Corey was trained at Hollywood High P.A.C., Smart's School of Dance, Vikki Clemence Dance Studio, Debbie Reynold's, MaDonna Grimes and the Edge P.A.C..

He has done extensive work in video with Bjork and Debra Cox to name a few. As for commercial, industrial and stage credits, he has performed for Coca Cola and Casio for Amer & Ward Productions, B.U.M. Equipment and numerous stage productions, for Disney/Buena Vista, Instincts Dance Company with Liz Imperio and many others.

Corey's Choreography credits include film and video work for Dwight Yoakam, Colton Ford and the Blood Hound Gang. He has done industrial choreography for Coca Cola, Casio, B.U.M., Gucci and Calvin Klein. His stage credits include several productions at the Queen Mary, Carnival Productions at the Key Club, FW Productions and Fusion Dance Studio's Choreographers Showcase.

Currently, Corey is the Artistic Director of the "Queen B's" Burlesque Show on Queen Mary in Long Beach. Corey travels worldwide teaching master classes in Jazz, Jazz Funk and setting "Corey-ography" for competition teams.

Fusion Studios: Dance, Art Music
22236 Palos Verdes Blvd., Torrance, CA 90505
(310) 540-5401

Website: www.fsdam.com Email: fusion_studios@yahoo.com