

SANDRA BARRANCO

Owner, Instructor and Choreographer

Ballet, Jazz and Tap

---

Sandra has had the desire to dance since she was two years old. She always wanted to be the center of attention and perform. She began her training in Miami, Florida at the Dancexchange. She continued through high school in the school drill/dance team competing in state and local competitions. She also continued her training and danced with Barry University in Miami, Florida. She started teaching and choreographing in 1998 for various dance programs and competitive dance teams. Sandra realized she has a way with children and wants them to have as much joy with dancing as she had. Dancing has truly changed her life and has given her discipline and creativity.
